CHAPTER XII.

IN October following the events of the last chapter Gerald died of consumption, having borne a lingering illness with great fortitude. I, who had come there a homeless orphan in a basket and who with the God given eloquence of childhood had brought them to take me to their hearts and the old man that was with me as well, was now the only son left to Elizabeth and David Brower. There were those who called it folly at the time they took us in, I have heard, but he who shall read this history to the end shall see how that kind of folly may profit one or even many here in this hard world.

It was a gloomy summer for all of us. The industry and patience with which Hope bore her trial night and day is the sweetest recollection of my youth. It brought to her young face a tender sobriety of womanhood—a subtle change of expression that made her all the more dear to me. Every day, rain or shine, the old doctor had come to visit his patient, sometimes sitting an hour and gazing thoughtfully in his face, occasionally asking a question or telling a quaint anecdote. And then came this end

The sky was cold and gray in the late autumn, and the leaves were drifted deep in the edge of the woodlands when Hope and I went away to school together at Hillsborough. Uncle Eb drove us to our boarding place in town. When we bade him goodbye and saw him driving away alone in the wagon we hardly dared look at each other for the tears in our eyes.

David Brower had taken board for us at the house of one Solomon Rollin, universally known as Cooky Rollin. That was one of the first things I learned at the academy. It seemed that many years ago he had taken his girl to a dance and offered her in lieu of supper cookies that he had thoughtfully brought with him. Thus cheaply he had come to lifelong distinction.

"You know Rollin's ancient history, don't you?" the young man asked who sat with me at school that first day.

"Have it at home," I answered. "It's in five volumes."

"I mean the history of Sol Rollin, the man you are boarding with," said he, smiling at me, and then he told the story of the cookies.

The principal of the Hillsborough academy was a big, brawny bachelor of Scotch descent, with a stern face and cold, gray, glaring eyes. When he stood towering above us on his platform in the main room of the building where I sat there was an alertness in his figure and a look of responsibility in his face that reminded me of the pictures of Napoleon at Waterloo. He always carried a stout ruler that had blistered a shank of every mischievous boy in school. As he stood by the line that came marching in to prayers every morning he would frequently pull out a boy, administer a loud smack or two, shake him violently and force him into a seat.

The day I began my studies at the academy I saw him put two dents in the wall with the heels of a young man who had fallen in his algebra. To a bashful and sensitive youth just out of a country home the sight of such violence was appalling. My first talk with him, however, renewed my courage. He had heard I was a good scholar and talked with me in a friendly way about my plans. Both Hope and I were under him in algebra and Latin. I well remember my first error in his class. I had misconstrued a Latin sentence. He looked at me, a smile and a sneer crowding each other for possession of his face. In a loud, jeering tone he cried, "Mirabile dictu!"

I looked at him, in doubt of his meaning.

"Mirabile dictu!" he shouted, his tongue trilling the r.

I corrected my error.

"Perfect!" he cried again. "Puer pulchre! Next!"

He never went further than that with me in the way of correction. My size and my skill as a wrestler, that shortly insured for me the respect of the boys, helped me to win the esteem of the master. I learned my lessons and kept out of mischief. But others of equal proficiency were not so fortunate. He was apt to be hard on a light man who could be handled without overexertion.

Uncle Eb came in to see me one day and sat awhile with me in my seat. While he was there the master took a boy by the collar and almost literally wiped the blackboard with him. There was a great clatter of heels for a moment. Uncle Eb went away shortly and was at Sol Rollin's when I came to dinner.

"Powerful man, ain't he?" said Uncle Eb.

"Rather," I said. "Turned that boy into a regular horse fiddle," he remarked. "Must 'ave unsot his reason."

"Unnecessary!" I said. "Reminded me o' the time 'at Tip Taylor got his tooth pulled," said he. "Shook 'im up so 'at he thought he'd had his neck put out o' 'jint."

Sol Rollin was one of my studies that winter. He was a carpenter by trade, and his oddities were new and delightful. He whistled as he worked, he whistled as he read, he whistled right merrily as he walked up and down the streets, a short, slight figure with a round boyish face and a fringe of iron gray hair under his chin. The little man had one big passion—that for getting and saving. The ancient thrift of his race had pinched him small and narrow as a foot is stunted by a tight shoe. His mind was a bit out of register, as we say in the printing business. His vocabulary was rich and vivid and stimulating.

"Somebody broke into the arsenic today," he announced one evening at the supper table.

"The arsenic?" said somebody. "What arsenic?"

"Why the place where they keep the powder," he answered.

"Oh, the arsenal!"

"Yes, the arsenal," he said, cackling with laughter at his error. Then he grew serious.

"Stole all the ammunition out of it," he added.

"You mean ammunition, don't you, Solomon?" his wife inquired.

"Certainly," said he. "Wasn't that what I said?"

When he had said a thing that met his own approval Sol Rollin would cackle most cheerfully and then crack a knuckle by twisting a finger. His laugh was mostly out of register also. It had a sad look of relevancy. He laughed on principle rather than provocation. Some sort of secret comedy of which the world knew nothing was passing in his mind. It seemed to have its exits and its entrances, its villain, its clown and its miser who got all the applause.

While working his joy was unconfined. Many a time I have sat and watched him in his little shop, its window dim with cobwebs. Sometimes he would stop whistling and cackle heartily as he worked his plane or drew his pencil to the square. I have even seen him drop his tools and give his undivided attention to laughter. He did not like to be interrupted. He loved his own company the best while he was "doin' business." I went one day when he was singing the two lines and their quaint chorus, which was all he ever sang in my hearing.

"Mr. Rollin!" I said.

"Yes, siree," said he, pausing in the midst of his chorus to look up at me.

"Where can I get a piece of yellow pine?"

"See 'n a minute," he said. Then he continued his sawing and his song.

"Says I, 'Dan Skinner, I think yer mighty mean.' What d'ye want it fer?" he asked, stopping abruptly.

"Going to make a ruler," I answered.

"T' sen' me up the river with a seven dollar team!" he went on, picking out a piece of smooth planed lumber and handing it to me.

"How much is it worth?" I inquired.

He whistled a moment as he surveyed it carefully.

"Bout a cent," he answered seriously.

I handed him the money and sat down awhile to watch him as he went on with his work. It was the cheapest amusement I have yet enjoyed. Indeed, Sol Rollin became a dissipation, a subtle and seductive habit, that grew upon me, and on one pretext or another I went every Saturday to the shop if I had not gone home.

"What ye goin' t' be?"

He stopped his saw and looked at me, waiting for my answer.

At last the time had come when I must declare myself, and I did.

"A journalist," I replied.

"What's that?" he inquired curiously.

"An editor," I said.

"A printer man?"

"Huh!" said he. "Mebbe I'll give ye a job. Sairey tol' me I'd order t'ave some cards printed. I'll want good plain print, 'Solomon Rollin, Carpenter an' J'nior, Hillsborough, N. Y.' Soun's purty good, don't it?"

"Beautiful," I answered.

"I'll git a big lot on 'em," he said.

"I'll want one fer Sister Susan 'at's out in Minnesota—no, I guess I'll send 'er tew, so she can give one away—an' one fer my brother, Eliphalet, an' one apiece fer my three cousins over 'n Vermont an' one fer my aunt Miranda. L's see—tew an' one is three an' three is six an' one is seven. Then I'll git a few struck off fer the folks here.

Guess they'll think I'm gittin' up 'n the world."

He shook and snickered with anticipation of the glory of it. Pure vanity inspired him in the matter, and it had in it no vulgar consideration of business policy. He whistled a lively tune as he bent to his work again.

"Yer sister says ye're a splendid scholar," said he. "Hear'n 'er braggin' 'bout ye t'other night. She thinks a good deal o' her brother, I can tell ye. Guess I know what she's goin' t' give ye Christmas."

"What's that?" I asked, with a curiosity more youthful than becoming.

"Don't ye never let on," said he.

"Never," said I.

"Hear'n 'em tell," he said, "t'was a gol' lockup with 'er pictur' in it."

"Oh, a locket!" I exclaimed.

"That's it," he replied, "an' pure gol' too."

I turned to go.

"Hope she'll grow up a savin' woman," he remarked. "Fraid she won't never be very good t' work."

"Why not?" I inquired.

"Hain't are too little an' white," he answered.

"She won't have to," I said.

He cackled uproariously for a moment, then grew serious.

"Her father's rich," he said, "t' richest man o' Faraway, an' I guess she won't never hev anything t' dew but set an' sing an' play the melodi-um."

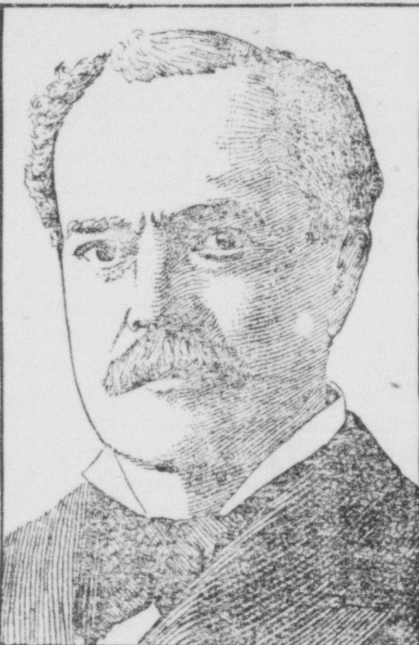

"She can do as she likes," I said.

He stood a moment, looking down as if meditating on the delights he had pictured.

"Gol!" he exclaimed suddenly.

My subject had begun to study me, and I came away to escape further examination.

MAYOR ELECT DUNNE.

[The man who won in Chicago's interesting municipal contest.]

A Right Warm Election.

Huntington, Va., April 7.—After a memorable conflict in which three men were shot, several badly beaten up by policemen and deputy sheriffs and numerous county and city officials arrested and cast into jail or threatened with arrest, John W. Ensign, Democrat, was yesterday elected mayor of Huntington, having a majority of forty-eight votes. The Democrats elected four councilmen, which with two holdovers and the mayor, gives them the control of the city affairs, the council itself being a tie, six to six. All the other Republican candidates were elected.

Meningitis Penetrates West.

Washington, April 7.—A report from Superintendent Carroll of the government boarding school on the Mescalero Indian reservation in New Mexico to the commissioner of Indian affairs indicates that an epidemic of meningitis has penetrated to that point. Of four patients, three are dead and the fourth is not expected to live. The commissioner has ordered that the school be closed.

A UTOPIAN DREAM

The Russian Revolutionaries
Want a Brand New Government at Once.

PLATFORM IS ISSUED

Main Point of Program Is to Erect a Democratic Republic on the Ruins of the Autocracy.

The Usual Points of Social Democratic Doctrine Are Urged and Then a Few.

Moscow, April 7.—The central committee of the social revolutionary party has drawn up a document containing the main points in its program, and of this hundreds of thousands of copies are being printed for circulation in all parts of European Russia. The first and main point of the program is the establishment of a Democratic republic on the ruins of the autocracy and besides the usual points of social democratic doctrine, it includes many arguments especially directed to Russian conditions and designed to appeal to the self-interest of the Russian proletariat, both agricultural and industrial. It voices phrases familiar to the American ear, such as "initiative and referendum," "public ownership of public utilities," etc.

The program is divided under two heads, the first politico-legal domain, under which it demands the institution of a democratic republic with broad autonomy for the provinces, municipalities and communes; the widest application of the federative principle of the relations between the various nationalities; a direct secret universal ballot without distinction as to sex, nationality or religion; proportional representation; direct popular legislation, with the initiative and referendum; electibility, responsibility and removability of all officials; separation of church and state; complete freedom of conscience, speech, the press, assembly and association; right to strike; compulsory popular and gratuitous education; and abolition of the standing army and substitution of a national militia.

Under the second head, national economy and domain, the party favors the eight-hour day with a reduction for the more dangerous and unsanitary occupations; a minimum wage scale; state insurance for all, the forms regulated by the insured at the expense of the state and employers; regulation of factory construction; prohibition of child labor below sixteen and of female labor at certain occupations; and professional organization of workmen, with an increasing share in the internal management of institutions. In agrarian policy the party declares the earth is the common heritage of all citizens and such approach to abolition of private ownership as is practicable, including the sequestration of crown, church and state lands, turning them over to the communes; and the limitation and conversion of rents into an income tax, payable to the commune. In the realm of finance the party favors progressive income and inheritance taxes, inapplicable to small incomes; the abolition of indirect taxes; and the protective system except as to objects of luxury. It also favors the common ownership of all utilities, medical assistance gratis, development of co-operation on strictly democratic principles, and measures tending to the independence of the working classes of governmental bureaucracy.

The document closes with a warning to industrialists against "state socialism" which it declares to be a system of half measures deluding workers, concentrating industry and commerce in the hands of the governing bureaucracy, and urging the summoning of a constituent assembly wherein it proposes to conduct the campaign for the dissolution of the autocratic regime and the transformation of the existing order.

Politicians Are Speculating.

Paris, April 7.—The arrival of King Edward in Paris was the occasion for a notable manifestation of Anglo-French cordiality, which is being generally interpreted as a conspicuous response to Germany's attitude regarding Morocco, although the king remained but a short time. He was met outside the city by President Loubet, who held a private conversation with his majesty, lasting nearly an hour. The details of the conversation cite a wide range of speculation, but its actual purport has not been disclosed. King Edward left Paris for Marseilles, where he will join Queen Alexandra on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert.

Laid It on to Cocaine.

Minneapolis, April 7.—Alexander H. Granville Gordon was sentenced to one year in the Stillwater prison by Judge Page Morris of the United States circuit court here. He was charged with sending a threatening letter to President Roosevelt. Gordon asked for leniency, saying that he was under the influence of cocaine at the time, and promised to reform. Letters were read in court showing that Gordon was a descendant from an honored English family.

PAINFUL PERIODS

Suggestions How to Find Relief from Such Suffering.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it does not seem from the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. If it is painful or irregular something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

More than fifty thousand women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes painful and irregular menstruation.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases. The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Miss Nellie Holmes of 540 N. Davidson Street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

"Your medicine is indeed an ideal medicine for women. I suffered misery for years with painful periods, headaches and bearing-down pains. I consulted two different physicians but failed to get any relief. A friend from the East advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and no longer suffer as I did before. My periods are natural; every ache and pain is gone, and my general health is much improved. I advise all women who suffer to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., writes:

"I might have been spared many months of suffering and pain had I only known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills."

Vegetable Compound sooner for I have tried so many remedies without help. "I dreaded the approach of my menstrual period every month, as it meant so much pain and suffering for me, but after I had used the Compound two months I became regular and natural and am now perfectly well and free from pain at my monthly periods. I am very grateful for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound rests upon the well-earned gratitude of American women.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating, (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat you with kindness and her advice is free. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.

THE ROUGH RIDERS

President Roosevelt Today Is
With His Old Comrades
at Arms.

WALLS OF THE ALAMO

Form a Sheltering Shade For the Camp of the President's Valiant
Regiment at San Antonio.

Most Enthusiastic Demonstration
Held in Texas Gives the President
a Warm Welcome.

San Antonio, Tex., April 7.—After an eventful trip across a large portion of Texas, President Roosevelt arrived in San Antonio at 8:39 o'clock last night. When the special train bearing the president reached the station he was greeted with cheers from thousands of throats and the lusty "hurrahs" of his old comrades in arms, the famous Rough Riders of the Spanish-American war who are holding their annual reunion near the crumbling walls of the historic Alamo, could be plainly heard above the din.

The city is a maze of color in honor of the president's visit. Business houses and residences are decorated with flags and bunting, and today's exercises are providing the most patriotic demonstration ever held in the state.

The president's train was run on a siding near the depot where it will remain until night when the visitors will leave for Fort Worth.

The fullest reunion in the history of the rough riders is in progress in San Antonio and the day is being given over to a vociferous welcome to the famous regiment's colonel, now President Roosevelt.

The rough riders met yesterday afternoon in business session. Officers were elected, the constitution amended, the retiring president made a speech and four names were added to the roll of honorary membership. The new officers are: President, C. E. Hunter, Indian Territory; First Vice president, David Goodrich, Indian Territory; Secretary, Robert Colbert, Indian Territory.

Probably the most striking feature of the business session was the selection of honorary members. Those chosen were as follows: Lieutenant General S. M. B. Young, Major General Joseph Wheeler (retired), Major General Samuel Sumner and Brigadier General Charles L. Cooper (retired). The constitution was amended so that biennial reunions will be held hereafter. Gov. Joseph H. Kibbey of Arizona and Mayor Morris Goldwater of Prescott, appeared before the association and extended a hearty invitation to hold the next reunion at Prescott. This matter was left in the hands of the executive committee.

EVERYTHING LOVELY

Equitable Directors Have Reached an Agreement.

New York, April 7.—Out of the fifty members of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, thirty-eight assembled in the company's board room yesterday afternoon, and after an hour and thirty minutes of discussion, in the course of which it is understood the whole Equitable controversy was gone over, announcement was made that those present unanimously had decided to adopt the two years' mutualization plan, announced several days ago. Rumors of resignations did not bear fruit, and it was authoritatively said that none was tendered.

"Everything harmonious," was the tenor of the official statement issued after the meeting by Senator Chauncey M. Depew and Cornelius Bliss. This announcement also said that a committee of directors would thoroughly investigate the company management.

May Knock Out Agreement.

London, April 7.—A serious hitch in the agreement recently signed between British and German bondholders and the Venezuelan government threatens to render the scheme for the satisfaction of the former's claims impracticable. A clause in the contract provides that the proportion of the revenues allotted to the bondholders shall be paid to the British legation and consular officials in Venezuela, but the British government refuses its consent. The bondholders are discussing an alternative arrangement, but considerable doubt exists that the contract will be carried out.

Meningitis in Europe.

Berlin, April 7.—Spotted fever has been raging for several months in epidemic form in Silesia. In the region around Oppeln about 400 cases have been reported, of which fully one-half resulted in death. Much alarm exists among the people, especially the laboring population, and many have fled from the district. The disease is beginning to make its appearance in other parts of the country.

Investigating Rural Delivery.

Washington, April 7.—George Ross, chief postoffice superintendent of Canada, and William Smith, secretary of the Canadian postoffice department, are here investigating rural free delivery.

Preparations are being made, it is said, by the federal grand jury, investigating the so-called beef trust, to indict certain witnesses who have appeared before the inquisitorial body on charges of perjury and for interference with other witnesses.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

So uniformly successful has Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proven in all forms of Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb, and Leucorrhoea, that, after over a third of a century's experience in curing the worst cases of these distressing and debilitating ailments, Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in cash for any case of these diseases which he cannot cure.

IT STANDS ALONE.—The "Favorite Prescription" stands alone, as the one and only remedy for these distressing and common forms of weakness, possessed of such positively specific curative properties as to warrant its makers in proposing, and binding themselves to forfeit, as we, the undersigned proprietors of that wonderful remedy hereby do, to pay the sum of $500 in legal money of the United States in any case of the above diseases in which after a fair and reasonable trial of our treatment, we fail to cure. No other medicine for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments is backed by such a remarkable guarantee; no other medicine for woman's ills is possessed of the unsurpassed curative properties that would warrant its manufacturers in making such an offer; no other remedy has such a record of cures on which to base such a remarkable offer.

Therefore, trust on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and turn your back on any unscrupulous dealer who would insult your intelligence by attempting to foist upon you some inferior substitute, under the plea that "it is just as good." Insist on having the article which has a record of a third of a century of cures and which is backed by those willing to forfeit $500 if they cannot cure you.

In cases attended by a leucorrhoeal drain a solution of Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets should be used conjointly with the use of the "Favorite Prescription." They are sold by all druggists, or sent post-paid to any address, on receipt of 25 cents in stamps. Send 31 cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address WORLD'S DISPENSARY, Buffalo, N. Y.

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

ANOTHER BIG CROWD

Uncle Daniel Repeated to a Crowded House.

The second production of "Uncle Daniel" was given at the Opera House last night to a large crowd. The play was appreciated as much as it was the first time, and the general opinion of those who witnessed both performances is that the second presentation was better than the first.

The specialties were new this time and were thoroughly enjoyed. The Woodmen feel quite gratified by the excellent patronage of the play for their benefit and are more than satisfied with the monetary proceeds.

The play was well chosen and the cast was strong throughout. They worked faithfully in their rehearsals and had the play well in hand. And now they have the satisfaction of knowing that their work was thoroughly appreciated. All who heard the play are praising it.

Osteopathy.

Mrs. J. B. Forder, wife of U. S. Senator of Ohio, said regarding Osteopathy:

"If Dr. A. T. Still discovered nothing new in medical science but what he has done for women, his name would go down the ages as the greatest physician of any age and one of the historical benefactors of the race. His system has made it possible for woman to escape most of the ills which she has been supposed traditionally to be condemned to suffer; he has made it possible for her to approach maternity in calm tranquillity, having assurance that its pains will be almost entirely overcome; and he has demonstrated that women need not spend their lives nursing functional derangements without finding succor. Who before has done so much in medicine?"

Dr. H. M. Dawson is a graduate under Dr. Still, and during the past month has demonstrated to many sufferers in Seymour that Osteopathy will do all that is claimed for it. Dr. Dawson is located permanently in Seymour. Office in Hein's Bldg. Consultation and examination free by appointment. Phone No. 9. at 10-12d

Discovered Pike's Peak.

There is a movement on foot in Colorado to have the remains of Col. Zebulon Pike, whose body rests in a picturesque spot in Greendale Cemetery, near Lawrenceburg, Ind., removed to the top of Pike's Peak, the mountain he discovered in 1805 while leading an exploring party into the then newly acquired Louisiana purchase, before the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the discovery.

However, the descendants of Col. Pike, living in Lawrenceburg, oppose the movement. Upon his death in 1814, while he was in command of an American expedition invading Canada, Col. Pike's body was buried in the family cemetery on his large farm and it was removed to its present resting place in Greendale cemetery in 1868.

No Extra Pay.

Under a law passed by the last legislature, the assessors of all counties shall serve as members of the county board of review without additional wages. This is right, for county assessors salaries are fixed by law and there should be no extras. The same rule should hold with all other county officers. The fee system is wrong.

COMMENCEMENT.

Jackson Township Schools Close a Successful Year.

The annual commencement of the Jackson township schools was held at the New Driftwood church Thursday night. There was a crowd present that filled the church and the exercises were of a high order. Music was supplied by the Seymour orchestra.

The principal address of the evening was made by Rev. C. E. Severinghaus, of Seymour, and what he said was to the point and in keeping with the occasion. His remarks to the graduating class were especially forceful and helpful.

There were three graduates, Miss Lela Edwards, district No. 3, and Robert White and John Russell, both of district No. 5, and each of them gave an oration which did credit to themselves and to their teachers. Miss Edwards subject was "The Value of Friendship." Robert White took for his subject "General Lew Wallace" and John Russell's subject was "Help Yourself."

The diplomas were presented by the county superintendent, J. E. Payne, with an excellent talk. Mr. Payne incidentally spoke of the centralization of the township schools, commending that system.

Trustee Fetting had general charge of the commencement. He is well pleased with the success of the township schools the past year.

DIED.

VOSBRINCK.—Mrs. Margaret Vosbrinck died at her home on South Walnut at 2:25 this morning at the age of sixty-seven years and eight months. She had been an invalid for the last past three years. Seven weeks ago she took worse with an attack of a gripple and from that time on had considerable trouble with her lungs. On Wednesday morning she seemed to grow quite noticeably worse and continued so until her death, except for a short time Thursday evening.

She was born at Nassau, Germany, in 1837 and remained at that place until she reached the age of sixteen, when she came to this country with the rest of her family. Her father died when they reached New Orleans. Her mother and four children came to Jackson county and resided near Brownstown. Soon after they came to Seymour and at this place she met and was married to her husband, John H. Vosbrinck, now deceased. She leaves two brothers and two sisters, residing in Clark and Scott counties, and three daughters, Anna, Katherine and Louise, all living in Seymour.

Mrs. Vosbrinck was confirmed in Germany in 1851, but was not a member of any church here. She had a wide circle of friends in this city, who regret the loss of such an excellent woman. The funeral services will be conducted at the residence at 532 South Walnut, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. G. W. Shields, pastor of the First Presbyterian church will have charge of the ceremonies.

NICHOLSON.—Harry Nicholson, aged about eighteen years, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Susan Nicholson, east of Reddington, Friday morning, April 7. He had been sick for some time.

Mail Order Houses.

The New Castle Democrat says that more than $100,000 per year goes from Henry county to the mail order houses of the country. How does the Democrat account for this inordinate eagerness on the part of its constituents to go up against these mail order propositions? Are the business people of Newcastle doing anything near such aggressive and effective advertising as do the mail order houses? If they are not, but instead are complacently indifferent to the methods that make for success, is it any wonder that persons are induced by the logic of pictures and prices to send their money away from home?—Lawrenceburg Press.

Persistent advertising of the home merchant, showing that he can duplicate the goods bought of the mail order house at a better price will keep this business at home.

The American Boy.

This April number, by reason of its varied and interesting contents, is one of the best yet published. Among the larger articles and stories are "What a Boy can do in a Town Lot," and the boys will be surprised to find what a lot of fun they can have even within limited space; "Ivan Ivanovitch," telling how a Russian peasant lad relieved his village from taxes; "Ron Cameron's Pickering Shoot," a story of fishing with guns; "A trip to Donkey Land;" "The Shark that Nearly Got Us;" "A Night with Italian Devilfish Catchers;" "The Bully and the Cuban;" "The Meadowbrook Club and its Hounds;" "Buried Alive," a true story by a boy of 15 years. There are also two pages devoted to "With the Boys." In addition to these and many others of equal interest and instructive value there are the usual departments, $1.00 a year. ## BEWARE OF THE MAN

Who First Makes You Blind Before He Can Make You See—A Voluntary Statement by One of Seymour's Most Prominent and Respected Daughters

My eyes have been a source of constant worry to me. Having no Specialist in our city was obliged to go to Cincinnati where an Oculist found my eyes in such a bad and weakened state that he sent me to a Specialist.

These lenses did very well for a time and finding I needed a change, decided to go to Dr. Harsch. In these glasses I am more than pleased.

Dr. Harsch tests are the most simple and pleasant I have ever experienced, in that he uses no medicine with his work and thus one escapes the nauseating after effects of belladonna or Atropine that so many Specialists use.

I would advise any one suffering with any eye sight trouble to consult him at once and find the comfort one finds in a perfectly fitted pair of lenses.

Respectfully,
MISS HELENA BUSTEDY,
11 E. 2nd St. Seymour, Ind.

Dr. Geo. W. Warner, a Medical practitioner for 40 years in this section now residing at Crothersville

Has this to say: "During my life I have had much refracting done, having worn lenses for a great many years and have been fitted by the best Oculists in the large cities. I want to say this for Dr. Harsch that the correction he made for Mrs. Warner and myself is by far the best we have ever had the pleasure of wearing, and perfect lens power to those who require this artificial assistance so necessary to many of us, means much. I imagine many people think they have the best, as I did, because I had been to the cities. If there is a question in your mind, if you have a single unpleasant symptom, take my advice and consult Dr. Harsch. I have gone over the matter of refracting and eye sight troubles with this gentleman many times during the past ten months, and as a medical practitioner for years, believe I am in a position to recognize the real ability that he possesses, and gladly recommend him for the good he can do for humanity."

Mrs. Dorothy Leppert, the respected widow of the late Rev. Leppert,

Now residing at Surprise says:—"For years I tried, but in vain to have lenses made that would give satisfaction. Most of the time I carried two pair around, neither of which gave me good vision. Early last fall Mr. and Mrs. Harsch made me one pair of lenses which I use for distance, and for close work and they are grand. I am now seventy but I see as well as I did at twenty. I have no pains in my temples or in back of my head, caused by trying to see, with such lenses as I now have, I would not sell them for $1,000, could I not replace them."

From a Prominent Crothersville School Teacher, Miss Ethel Wiesman.

We received the lenses last Wednesday and can truly recommend you to our friends. Mamma's eyes are getting better. Enclosed find P. O. order for balance. Mrs. Weisman was suffering from primary granulation and the daughter was unable to pursue her duties at school on account of eye strain headaches.

We could fill an ordinary newspaper for months with testimonials. If you have eye sight troubles come to us for relief, your money back if not satisfied. Mr. and Mrs. Harsch, 73 North Chestnut street.

Law Held Good.

The act of 1903, allowing clerks and sheriffs their full salaries, on showing that they have collected all fees pertaining to their offices which can be collected by fee bills, is constitutional. In so deciding the supreme court has brought joy to the hearts of more than 300 officers and ex-officers in the state. This act is known as the back salary law. It provides that instead of waiting for their salaries until the fees collected shall be sufficient to pay them, as was required by the fee and salary act, sheriffs and clerks shall receive their salaries in full as soon as they can prove to the board of commissioners, by the return of a fee bill, that payment of the costs remaining uncollected can not be enforced. Its application was limited to officers whose terms expired after January 1, 1900.

CHILDREN.

If You Have Any This Will Interest You.

"So many little boys and girls come into our store who are weak, thin, legged and hollow-cheeked," said Mr. Peter of the W. F. Peter Drug Co. "It seems a shame to allow them to remain so, for they will grow up into weak, sickly and nervous men and women, without the vitality to work or enjoy life."

"If," continued Mr. Peter "the fathers and mothers of such children would believe what we say of Vinol, we would see a great difference in the appearance of the younger generation of this city. You know Vinol is not a patent medicine, and is just the tonic growing children need. It will make for them good, healthy flesh, sound bone, hard muscle and rich, red blood."

"True, Vinol is a cod liver oil preparation, but it does not contain a drop of oil, or any bad tasting feature. It is so delicious that all children love it, yet it actually does contain all the medicinal curative elements found in fresh cods' livers, and is the most wholesome and best medicine for children we ever sold."

"We have many letters from grateful mothers whose children owe their health and even life, to Vinol. The following letter from Mrs. C. Allen of New Bedford, Mass., tells what Vinol did for children. She writes:

"With two puny, ailing children, I was very much worried, and did not know what to do to create strength for them and to have them gain flesh. I tried almost everything, and as a last resort Vinol, and the benefit from that was great in a very short time. They are rapidly gaining flesh and strength and I am satisfied Vinol will do as much for other children."

It is because we know what Vinol will do that we guarantee if it fails to make your children well, rugged and rosy, to refund your money. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Last Day of School.

The last day of school was pleasantly observed at the White school on Thursday. The patrons came at noon with a bountiful dinner after which an excellent program of thirty numbers was given by the pupils and their popular teacher, Miss Reinhart, who has had charge of this school for the past four years. In that time the school has advanced from an enrollment of fifteen the first year to forty the past year. Her patrons appreciate the deep interest she has always taken in the school. Miss Reinhart will leave Monday for Terre Haute where she will enter the Indiana State Normal. The hearty good wishes of her grateful patrons and pupils and a host of friends in the community go with her.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube be restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

NO POLITICS IN IT

That French Lick Meeting Was Simply a "Happen So."

Indianapolis, Ind., April 7.—H. C. Starr of Richmond, one of the big guns among the Republican leaders passed through here today enroute home from French Lick where he has been for the last week with Senator Hemenway, Chairman Goodrich, of the state committee and J. B. Kealing, district attorney. It was rumored that there was a conference on important matters but Starr says that he and his friends were not there to discuss politics. Senator Hemenway is receiving applications for appointment as postmaster in the Third district having gone to French Lick so the delegations could get to him easier than they could reach his office in Bonneville. Chairman Goodrich was accompanied to French Lick by the members of his family and expects to remain for several days. Owing to the presence of so many party leaders there it was naturally supposed that some political deal was being framed up.

It was rumored today that T. C. Clifton, editor of a Republican paper at Covington, will probably be appointed to succeed Thomas Carter, of this city, as clerk of the state printing board. Clifton is one of Governor Hanly's close personal friends and an active candidate for the place. The governor is for him and while the secretary and auditor of state have a voice in the matter it is very likely they will bow to the governor's will. Carter is regarded as the most efficient man who ever held the clerkship. He has been in office ten years and while it was given out at a recent meeting of the printing board that he voluntarily resigned it is understood that he knew the governor wanted to give the position to one of his friends so he quit before anyone had a chance to ask for his resignation. It is not known why the governor wanted Carter to quit unless he desired to reward some of his own friends. Clifton is said to be a very competent man but is not a member of the Typographical union which may cause some trouble as the union is insisting on being recognized in the appointment.

Governor Hanly is besieged with applications for appointment as police judge for the various cities that will get them under the new municipal code. There is hardly standing room in his office, at times, the waiting list being something enormous. They are either coming in person or sending large delegations of their friends to endorse them before the governor. The latter, it is said, is making up his list and will announce it as soon as the acts are promulgated which will be towards the latter part of the month. The new municipal code is also giving the attorney general much work as in every community there is doubt as to how it should be construed and the attorney general is deluged with inquiries. It will take some time for the officials to get acquainted with the code as it contains many radical changes, especially for the smaller cities.

The governor has reappointed John Ward of Monticello, as adjutant general of the Indiana National Guard. This will be a popular appointment as Ward is well liked by the militia-men and by the leaders of his party. He was appointed four years ago by Governor Durbin and so far is the only Durbin appointee about the state house to be retained under the new administration. Ward is a veteran of the Spanish-American war and while not an active candidate for reappointment he is pleased at being retained. There were several applicants for the appointment. Ward was an original Hanly man.

A Deadener For Poolrooms.

San Francisco, April 7.—Superior Judge Seawell has dissolved all the temporary injunctions which have been obtained by the poolrooms of this city to prevent the police from interfering with their business. He also dismissed the application for an order directing the police to show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent. This practically kills all attempts on the part of the poolroom proprietors to keep their places open by legal methods, and the police are now free to go ahead and do what they please to close them.

LANE ADOPTED.

Progress Being Made Towards A New City Building.

At a special meeting of the city council Thursday night the plans of Architect Royer for a new city building were adopted. The plans were taken before the council and very carefully considered. Then there was a full and free discussion of them and other matters that enter into the question of constructing a city building and fire department house combined. After that the plans were adopted.

The plans show up well and portray a beautiful and well constructed brick building with stone trimmings. The arrangements are well conceived. The building is to be 119 feet and 9 inches long and thirty feet wide, fronting on Chestnut street. The treasurer's and clerk's offices are to be in front and back of this the marshal's office. Next comes the jail department with four cells and a woman's department. The rear room, 44x28, will be for the fire department and the arrangements for the exit here is excellent and with an abundance of room.

On the second floor will be offices for the mayor, city engineer and others also sleeping apartments and reading room for the fireman, the council chamber and police court room. The plans indicate just such a building as the city needs and at moderate cost.

The building committee was instructed to have the architect prepare specifications so that bids can be received and work begin as early as possible.

Cutting Out Grafters.

The Henry County Board of Education, which is composed of the township trustees of the county, has taken a step which, if followed, will practically put an end to grafting between public officials and the big school supply houses. Henry County people just recently discovered that they had some grafters serving as township trustees.

The trustees adopted a resolution that in the future no school supplies will be purchased from the big school supply houses, but that all the buying shall be done from local merchants, and the contract will be let to the highest bidder. Each trustee will keep tab of what needs develop in his township and at intervals a list will be made of what is needed in all townships and the total list will then be advertised and bids asked.

The trustees in other counties could profit by doing like wise. Some trustees even get stationary printed at Indianapolis and Greenfield and pay the express on it. Look over the published reports again.

OLD PEOPLE

Their Pains and Ailments

Any taint of the blood quickly shows itself with old people, and troubles, which a younger, more vigorous constitution holds in check, take possession of those of advanced years. A mole, wart or pimple often begins to inflame and fester, terminating in a sore that refuses to heal. Wandering pains of a rheumatic character are almost constant, the joints get stiff and the muscles sore, while sleeplessness and nervousness make life a burden. The natural activity of the body is not so great in old age and all the organs get dull and sluggish, failing to carry out the waste matters and poisons accumulating in the system and they are taken up and absorbed by the blood, rendering it weak and unable to properly nourish the system. There is no reason why old age should not be as healthy as youth if the blood is kept pure and strong. S. S. S. is purely vegetable and is the safest and best blood purifier and tonic for old people, because it is gentle, but at the same time thorough in its action, purifying the blood of all poisons and foreign matter, strengthening it and toning up the entire system by its fine tonic effect. Almost from the first dose the appetite increases, the general health begins to improve and the pains and ailments pass away.

La Soufriere's Activity Creates Apprehension Among Islanders.

Kingston, Island of St. Vincent, April 7.—In view of the fact that earthquake shocks were experienced on the island of St. Christopher, Dominica and Antigua, this week, and of the prevalence of intense heat here, the chief of police and two constables made the ascent of La Soufriere. They report that they found the area of the lake diminished and that they met with water, green and boiling from the north side of the lake, steam rising from all over the lake for the first time since the great eruptions of 1902. Steam was also exuding from a large crack in the lip of the crater and from numerous fissures inside the crater. The party was alarmed by a sudden disturbance which caused the water in the lake to change color to a dirty red. As the subterranean activity seemed to be increasing, the party hastened away.

PROMINENT OFFICERS

Are Connected With Alleged Plot Against French Government.

Paris, April 7.—Much mystery surrounds the arrest of an ex-captain of the army on the charge of conspiracy against the public security, and the seizure in the same connection of a large number of cartridges and uniforms. The parties concerned seek to explain that it was intended to use the arms in a mission to the Ivory coast; but the activity of the secret police leads to reports of a plot against the security of the government. The authorities minimize the affair. The names of prominent officers of the army are mentioned in connection with researches which the secret police are still pursuing.

The Secret of Success.

CONSUMPTION'S ENEMY

It Is Claimed Now That Tapeworm Is Death to Tuberculosis.

Washington, April 7.—"The tapeworm is the natural enemy of the germ of consumption, and the latter cannot exist when the other is present," says Consul Canada at Vera Cruz, Mex., in a report just received at the state department. The consul states that two eminent scientists have discovered that the tapeworm prevents the organism from being infected with tuberculosis bacilli, and it has been proven in the case of a consumptive affected with tapeworm that he completely recovered his health. To establish the efficacy of this remedy the doctors injected a liquid prepared from the tapeworm into several consumptives, which resulted in a complete cure.

Created a Sensation.

Salt Lake City, April 7.—Jos. F. Smith was sustained as a prophet, seer and revelator by unanimous vote of the members of the Mormon church at the opening session of the seventy-fifth annual convention. When the vote was taken to sustain the twelve apostles two hands were raised in dissent. One of the dissenters arose to explain his vote but was not permitted to speak. President Smith merely stating that he could present his objections to the proper authorities. The incident created a profound sensation. The members who dissented stated afterward that they desired to protest against sustaining such officers of the church as live in polygamy.

How to Get Well.

Every organ of the body is directly connected with the brain by nerves. The nerve cells in the brain generate nerve force—power—and send it to the organ through these nerves, and this nerve-force gives life and action. The organs work perfectly when there is sufficient nerve power. Lack of nerve force weakens the action of an organ and it works imperfectly—becomes sick.

Two-thirds of all sickness is thus due to weak or deranged nerves; it is therefore advisable to take Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, because it makes nerve energy.

When you cure the nerves you remove the cause, and that's the way to get well.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve cures a man of nervous prostration after every other effort had failed to give him relief. My trouble seemed to begin with a general loss of strength and a breaking down of the nervous system. I suffered from headache, constipation and fluttering or palpitation of the heart. My appetite failed and I was so nervous and restless that I could not sleep at night. My husband, who is a druggist, brought me a bottle of Nerve. It helped me from the start, and I continued using it until I had taken six bottles. My health was completely restored.

MRS. S. L. M. MORRIS, Mich. Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

MAKING A RECORD

Acts of the General Assembly Are Out Much Earlier Than Usual.

DISTRIBUTION BEGINS

A Score of Counties Have Already Received Their Quota of the Recently Enacted Laws.

Governor's Proclamation Making the Laws Effective Looked For About the 20th Inst.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 7.—The first copies of the acts of 1905, Indiana General Assembly, are now coming from the press. They make a bulky volume of nearly 500 pages. Twenty counties in the state have received their quota of the published acts and the other seventy-two counties will have received their share within the next ten days if the publishing house and the express companies carry out their respective contracts with the state. A number of advance copies have been distributed among state officials. After every county in the state has received the published acts and the county clerk has received for the same to the secretary of state, Governor Hanly will issue a proclamation declaring the laws to be in effect. It is now believed that the proclamation will be issued between the 15th and 20th of this month.

TWENTY PAROLES GRANTED

Sixty Applications Were Considered by the Board of Control.

Michigan City, Ind., April 7.—The board of control of the prison at Michigan City has adjourned after considering sixty applications for parole and granting twenty thereof. Among the applications were three from men sent up under the law passed by the legislature of 1903 for the crime designated as receiving money on fraudulent checks. The statutes fix the maximum punishment at five years, but do not stipulate a minimum. Therefore it was for the board to determine how long it was necessary for a man to serve before his application for release would be considered.

A new rule relative to the classification of prisoners has been adopted. Under this new rule prisoners upon arrival are not placed in the checked uniform as formerly, but immediately don the uniform of the second grade, which is the cadet blue, but if the prisoner violates the discipline of the prison and is reduced he goes into the checked uniform as punishment. Third-grade prisoners wear the stripes, but they are also in solitary confinement while in this grade, and are not seen by the other convicts or visitors. The first-grade prisoners wear the cadet blue, the same as the second-grade prisoners.

Editor Tries New Job.

Jonesboro, Ind., April 7.—Edward W. Tucker, editor of the Jonesboro Herald, says he is not a success as a school teacher. Mrs. Tucker is a teacher in the Jonesboro public schools. She was ill this week and the husband acted as her substitute. A large boy who was one of the pupils in the room refused to obey the substitute teacher, and it is said Tucker used the switch. The boy caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of Tucker on charge of assault and battery. Tucker was arrested, waived a preliminary hearing and gave bond for his appearance for trial later.
